The Woman's Club met yesterday afternoon with the Civics committee in charge of the program. This proved to be of interest to those present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. S. C. Collins. Mrs. Collins introduced the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Hart spoke all too briefly on his subject as of particular interest to club women who have their city at heart. Mr. Hart emphasized the fact that the Chamber of Commerce wished to cooperate with the Woman's Club in their efforts to beautify the town. Mr. Hart later, the county. Mr. Hart offered concrete suggestions as to the city beautiful might be an established fact. He urged the planting of flowers along the sidewalks as well as about homes. Mr. Hart also said he had noticed the cleaning of certain alleys in the city was badly needed. He said that the spirit of the people in a town make the town, as example, Miami and St. George, not near the near the advantages of Palatka. He urged the "boosting" of Palatka by means of friends and mentioned the need only tell the truth as a little city with its splendid five railways, two boat lines, other valuable assets, to draw here. Mr. Hart, Mr. George gave an address, prefacing with the announcement of "Love and Sentiment." He proceeded to show that love, in its highest form, is service, and sentiment may be used to develop a town. He urged that sentiment felt toward the flag and his talk with a stirring was developed by the club women to patriotism. Following the program prepared by the civics committee, a business meeting was held with Mrs. Stallings in chair. Several matters of importance to the club were settled, among them the question of changing the day, Friday, to some other day. After a discussion, it was decided to continue the meetings on Friday. It was also decided, yesterday afternoon, to change the book of Order, to take place in the club, from the 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th of November. It was also decided to adopt a rule by which each member may be fined the sum of ten cents for not doing work assigned in the club, the sum of fines for year not to exceed one dollar. For paying one dollar fine, the member automatically becomes an honorary member, who is required to pay the same sum for the privilege of being such a member. Various announcements were made by heads of committees, tea was served and the meeting adjourned.

Masquerade Dance Enjoyed.
A much-enjoyed event of the season was the Halloween dance with which Miss Dorothy Townsend entertained a number of her friends last evening at her home in Orange Mills. This pleasant home has been the scene of many jolly affairs for the young people but the dance last night was an unusual success. The yard and house were aglow with Jack-o-lanterns and all the symbols dear to Halloween time were in evidence. Fortune telling, a variety of methods, was a feature of the evening. The grand march, which was brilliant with the variety of attractive costumes, was led by Arthur Long dancing with the hostess. A number of favor dances were featured, and a clever masked highwayman passed through the merry throng, "holding-up" any couple he chose, that he might dance with the girl. A big gun aided these "hold-ups."

Punch was enjoyed throughout the evening, and during an intermission, ice-cream and cake were served. Chaperoning the young people were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Townsend, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Stanton, and Mrs. T. A. Woodruff. Misses Ella Woodruff and Jacquelin Pursley assisted the hostess in looking after the pleasure of her guests.

Present last night were: Misses Gertrude Williams, Gertrude Mayer, Jacquelin Pursley, Dorothy Meigs, Ella Woodruff, Essie Woodruff, Mary Ruth Woodruff, Katherine Johnson, Katherine Ray, Evelyn Barnett, Florence McRae, Alice Thomas, Ruth Browning, Helen de Montmollin, Helen Bruce, Ophelia Currie, Veola Benbow, and Frances Henley, and Messrs. Robley Bruce, Fred Bruce, John Cannon, Davis Dancy, Carl Alderman, Miller Stockton, Hugh Padgett, Tom Perry, Carl Zart, Charles Dressler, George Currie, Earnest Oliphant, Bob Webb, Jack Simmons, Brantley Mosely, Arthur Long, Paul Leverette, Campbell, Sam McCormack, Richard Knight and Richard Jarrett.
